IMPORTANT A. S. OF E. MEETINGS.

Tobacco Growers At Hardinsburg Favor Reduction Of Acreage--Great Rally At Hawesville--Call Made For Joint Convention Here Next Saturday.

Several hundred tobacco growers met in the courthouse at Hardinsburg Saturday for the purpose of completing the organization of the Breckinridge county union of the American Society of Equity, in pursuance to a call made by Deputy President E. B. Oglesby of this city. When this object of the meeting was accomplished, several questions of general and local interest were considered. Nothing definite was done, however, except the adoption of a resolution to curtail the acreage of the 1905 crop of tobacco twenty-five per cent. Several proposed plans for holding the present crop by the warehouse plan were not favorably received by the convention. The courthouse was literally full, 519 persons holding the building, according to the statement of one man who counted them.

Twenty local unions of the A. S. of E., with a membership of about four hundred, were represented as follows:

Hardinsburg No. 1--Silas and Jas. Miller.

Hardinsburg No. 2--Kit DeJernette and Matt Shrewsbury.

Hardinsburg No. 3--Eli Meador and Sells Hobbs.

Hardinsburg No. 4--Caleb Bell and C. E. Robbins.

Hardinsburg No. 5--Milt Basham and D. S. Miller.

Kirk No. 1--Chas. Miller and Tns. Sherman.

Kirk No. 2--Wm. Lyons and Chas. Lyons.

Hardin No. 1--W. O. Butler.

Cloverport No. 1--W. G. Phanphy.

Cloverport No. 2--Geo. Harris.

Cloverport No. 3--Henry Waggoner and John Hazelip.

Cloverport No. 4--Flagge Carter.

Axtel No. 1--H. T. Matthews.

Tarfok No. 2--J. A. Osborne.

Bewleyville No. 1--Dr. P. W. Foote.

Mattingly No. 1--A. B. Orum and W. B. Taul.

Mattingly No. 2--W. N. Pate and Wm. Weise.

Mattingly No. 3--Geo. Pate and G. N. Taul.

Tarfok No. 1--O. W. Rice.

West View--Henry Skillman and A. Stilwell.

Present Granville Wilson, Secretary; Joe H. Pile and Treasurer Miller, who were elected in January, were retained as the officers of the county union.

The program which had been arranged for the meeting, with one exception, was not taken up, a resolution being passed to devote the time to deciding on the best plan to hold the present crop of tobacco for better prices. This question itself was later turned into the question of curtailing the acreage. Dr. P. W. Foote read an interesting paper on "What should the farmer do in view of tobacco?" this being the only part of the program submitted by the county officers that was taken up.

Among the decisions on questions of national interest, the delegates voted favorably for the adoption of a pure food law, the abolition of gambling in farm products, and the building of good roads (if by the government), and unanimously on an increase in the President's salary.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session W. S. Ball read a letter from the manager of the Equity warehouse at Owensboro saying that he would be glad to make some arrangements with the farmers of Breckinridge county to hold their tobacco for them.

J. W. Miller was opposed to the arrangements. He said he would just as soon put his tobacco into the hands of the American Tobacco company as the Louisville Warehouse Co., which is financing the Equity warehouse at Owensboro, and that he would rather sell it to a home buyer.

Kirch DeJernette said a warehouse man had told him that he had 600 hogheads of farmers' tobacco and that his advice was for farmers to hold their tobacco at home.

W. S. Ball moved that a committee be appointed to decide on the best plan for the farmers of the county to hold their tobacco and on the simplest and most practical way to get money advanced on tobacco. This motion did not carry.

Mr. Oglesby thought the best way for the farmers to hold their tobacco is at home.

J. W. Miller said he was not in favor of conferring with the trusts, that the only remedy is to reduce the size of the crop.

Hardin Walker's idea is to get all the farmers organized the first thing. There are a third or fourth of the farmers of the organization who control it to a great extent by taking advantage of the organization. When the farmer has complete control of his own business, he can get at the true letter.

Mr. Wilson was of the opinion that each local union should take care of the members of the union who are not able to take care of themselves in the matter of holding their tobacco.

Albert Orum was not in favor of the local union taking charge of the present because he didn't think the plan would work.

W. S. Ball offered a resolution calling for a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the acreage. The resolution received the unanimous vote of the farmers present but only a two-thirds-vote of the delegates from the various local unions.

During the consideration of this a man present was heard to remark that Lexington held a convention several years ago and adopted a resolution to reduce the acreage the result being the biggest crop ever raised.

Before the session adjourned, W. S. Ball was appointed a delegate to the convention to be held at Greenup on March 17 and 18, when an effort will be made to have the acreage in the entire dark tobacco district reduced.

Hancock Meeting.

Hawesville, Ky., March 15. The greatest farmer demonstration of the season put its tobacco into the hands of the American Tobacco company as the Louisville Warehouse Co., which is financing the Equity warehouse at Owensboro, and that he would rather sell it to a home buyer.

Kirch DeJernette said a warehouse man had told him that he had 600 hogheads of farmers' tobacco and that his advice was for farmers to hold their tobacco at home.

W. S. Ball moved that a committee be appointed to decide on the best plan for the farmers of the county to hold their tobacco and on the simplest and most practical way to get money advanced on tobacco. This motion did not carry.

Louisville Wednesday.

JAS. WALKER DEAD.

James Walker, "Big Jim," Walker as he was known to many, died Sunday evening at Frankfort, after a month's illness. He was the janitor of the Adjutant General's office, to which position he was appointed by Gen. Gross, under Gov. Brown, in 1890. Though he was a negro, Walker was Democratic in politics and because of this enjoyed the benefits of his appointment during Democratic administration. Probationary negro in Breckinridge county, of which he was a native, had more friends among the white people than James Walker.

A wife and five children, all grown, survive. The funeral will be held today, the interment being in this city, which he always claimed as his home.

A Destructive Fire.

To draw the firemen of a barn, or hall set without leaving a seat, one DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmonizer, Center, Ala., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for Piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by all Druggists.

GETTING READY EARLY.

The Tobopoint baseball nine is now getting in readiness to sustain the reputation made last year as one of the best teams in this section. They have rented a new baseball ground and will soon put it in shape.

TWO CHURCHES GET 62 NEW ADDITIONS.

Forty-Four More Methodists And Eighteen Baptists One Result of Rev. Newsom's Great Sermons.

Forty-four persons have united with the Methodist church and eighteen are candidates for baptism at the Baptist church, as one result of the greatest religious revival Breckinridge has known in years.

The revival came to a close last Friday evening, Rev. J. T. Newsom, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., who did the preaching, leaving Saturday morning for Hawesville, to engage in similar work. The majority of the Methodists who had given their names for membership in the Methodist church, where the revival was held, were received into the church on Friday evening by Rev. Newsom, and the remaining number of the forty-four on Sunday by Rev. King. Those who have united with the Baptist church will be baptised next Sunday.

The revivalists have been united with the Methodist church, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shadel, Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop, Mrs. Allen Kingsbury, Mrs. Cora Kinder, Mrs. Mary Parsons, Misses Grace Agnew, Daisy Crist, Marie Pine, Eliza Tucker, Esther Jackson, Carrie Tucker, Lillie Harper, Frances Sawyer, Anna May Bruns, May Berry, Lucy Adams, Ola Board, Vergie Daniel, Ross Agnew, Verla Wendell, Suzette Sawyer, Cornelia Allen and Clara Newton; Dr. R. L. Newson, J. W. Tatton, Verla Wendell, Harry Newsom, Frank Basham, Tom Ferry, Harold Murray, W. E. Adams, Joe Graham, Fred Adams, Jackie Weatherford, Wm. White, Mike Tucker, Farber, Harry Weatherford, Felix Jarboe, Bernard Morrison and Gilbert Eskridge.

Many good results, of a general nature, of the revival were enumerated in the last two issues of the News, but there are some that have become apparent only during the past week. The most important of these is the increase in membership and attendance. The Methodist church, at Tarfok, on Sunday afternoon, there being almost a half more pupils present than at the former church and a third more at the latter. Two other results are increased church going, and a stronger fraternal feeling between the members of the different churches of the town. The organization of an Epworth League, at the Methodist church, on Sunday afternoon, is another excellent result. The League was organized with thirty members. The officers, who were elected Sunday afternoon, will be installed next Sunday afternoon, the time of the first official meeting of the League.

Rev. Newsom's coming to Cloverport meant a great thing for the town and there was much regret at his departure. At Hawesville he has been given a rousing welcome and he will continue his good work there for about two weeks.

Starting Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Pills. Pills. Flannery, 14 of Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and Biliousness." 25¢ at Short & Haynes, druggists.

SUCCESS ASSURED.

All three of the Equity warehouses today had all the tobacco they could possibly handle. At the Wood & Turpin factory new bales had to be made to receive it. The success of the warehouse movement is now assured. --Friday's Owensboro Inquirer.

FARMERS HOLDING.

Washington, March 10.—According to the crop report issued by the agricultural department the percentage of wheat remaining in the hands of the farmers is 20.1 per cent., or 111,000,000 bushels; corn, 37.5 per cent., or 954,000,000 bushels; oats, 38.8 per cent., or 37,000,000 bushels.

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

The pills that acts as a tonic, and not a drastic purgative, DeWitt's Little Early Riser. They cure Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, our Early Risers are small, easy to take and a safe pill. Mac's Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D., says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by All Druggists.

WAITING ON WELL.

Construction of the dam has not begun yet on the ice factory to be operated by the Cloverport Water, Light & Ice company. Work was to have begun about the first of the month but it has been necessary to delay the erection of the building until the completion of a well for water for the manufacture of ice, which the company is planning to have put down this week.

RETURN FROM SOUTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Wickliffe DeHaven returned Wednesday afternoon from their bridal trip in the south on states and are back to their friends at the residence of his mother, Mrs. Mary DeHaven.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that there has been established and is now existing in the city of Cloverport, Breckinridge county and state of Kentucky, a corporation, the name of which is the Cloverport Water, Light & Ice Company, and that no business may be had on said corporation in any place outside of the state of Kentucky, except by service of the same on Marion Weatherford, its president, or, in the event of his necessary absence from Breckinridge county, then upon A. L. Fort, vice president.

Done at Cloverport, Ky., this 18th day of Feb. 1905.

PUSHING ORGANIZATION.

W. S. Ball and Henry DeH. Moorman, of Hardinsburg, as announced last week, will speak at Chenoa on Saturday, March 18, in interest of the American Society of Equity. On the completion of their talk they will organize a local union of the A. S. of E. at Chenoa. The farmers in this part of the county are not organized in the western, central and southern portions. The organization is being steadily pushed by agents and leaders of association members of the A. S. of E., in the hope that every part of the country will soon be as thoroughly organized as Hancock county.

POSTPONED A WEEK.

Federal court, by order of Judge Evans, was postponed last week from March 13 to March 20, on account of the illness of his wife.

succeed in satisfying and who go about their duties with the air of a martyr. At bottom these disaffected minds have too much misplaced self respect. They do not know how to fill their place simply but complicate their life and that of others by unreasonable demands.

When one takes the trouble to study men at short range he is surprised to find that pride has so many lurking places among those who are by common consent called the humble. So powerful is the vice that it arrives at power and wealth. Men live in the most modest circumstances—a wall which isolates them from their neighbors. There they are, intrenched, barricaded with their ambitions and their contempts, as inaccessible as the powerful of earth behind their aristocratic palaces. And there the illustrious pride wraps itself in a dark royalty of mimicry to the human race. It is the same in misery and in high places—solitary and impotent, on guard against everybody, embrolling everything. And the last word about it is always this: that there are so many differences between the different classes of men. It is less due to exterior conditions than to an interior fatality. Conflicting interests and differences of situation ditch us between us, it is true, but pride transforms the ditches into gulf, and in reality it is pride alone which creates and maintains them. There is nothing in common between you and us!

We have at first finished with pride, but it is impossible to picture it under all its forms. I feel most resentful against it when it meddles with knowledge and appropriates that. We owe our knowledge to our fellows, as we do our riches. And pride is the only vice which ought to be of service to everybody, and it can only be so when those who know remain sympathetically near to those who know not. When knowledge is turned into a tool for ambition it destroys itself.

And what shall we say of the pride of gold men? For it exists and makes them rich. The ones who have spent them of the earth others do remain in brotherhood and social rectitude. But the just who despise others for their faults and misdeeds ent themselves off from humanity, and their greed, devoured by the ring of an onion, on their vanity becomes like those riches which kindness does not inform, like authority untempered by the spirit of obedience. Like proud wealth and arrogant power, supercilious virtue also is detestable. It fosters in man traits and an attitude provocative of I know not what. It is the vice of the most refined of mankind, and those whom it affects to distinguish with its benefits feel as though they had been slapped in the face.

To resume and conclude, it is an error that we think our advantages, whatever they are, should be put to the service of our vanity. Each of us has a right to his own pride, and that is not a reason for an obligation and not a reason for an exaltation. Material wealth, power, knowledge, gifts of the heart and mind, become so much cause for discord when they serve to nourish pride. They remain beneficial only so long as they are devoid of modesty in those who possess them.

Let us be humble if we have great possessions, for that proves that we are great debtors. All that a man has he owes to some one, and we are sure of being able to pay our debts?

Let us be humble if we sit in high places and hold the fate of others in our hands, for no clear sighted man can fail to sensible of undignified for so great a role.

Let us be humble if we have much knowledge, for it only serves to better show the vastness of the unknown, and to compare the little we have discovered for ourselves with the amplitude of that which we owe to the pains of others.

And, above all, let us be humble if we are virtuous, since no one should be more sensible of his defects than he whose conscience is illumined, and since he, more than any one else, should feel the need of charity toward evil doers, even of suffering in their stead. This is why respect is indispensable.

The sole distinction necessary is the wish to become better. The man who strives to be better becomes more humble, more approachable, more friendly even with those who owe him ingratitude, but as he gains by being better known he loses nothing in distinction, and he keeps the more respect for those who have sown the less pride.

CHAPTER XIII.
THE EDUCATION FOR SIMPLICITY.
THIS simple life being above all else the product of a direction of mind, it is natural that education should have much to do with it. The best methods of rearing children are practical. The first is to bring them up for ourselves, the second to bring them up for themselves.

In the first case the child is looked upon as a complement of the parents; he partakes of their property, occupies a place among their possessions. Sometimes this place is the highest, especially when the parents value the life of the affections. Again, where material interests rule, the child holds second, third or even the last place. In any case he is a nobody. While he is the chief of the household, his parents, not only by choice, which is right, but by the subordination of all his originality, all his being. As he grows older this subordination becomes a veritable emaciation, extenuating to his ideas, his feelings, everything. His authority becomes perpetually less. Instead of growing and independent the man advances into slavery. It is what is permitted to be, what his father's business, religious beliefs, political opinions or aesthetic tastes require him to be. He will think, speak, act and marry according to the example of his parents. The parents are there for the child. No sooner is he born than he becomes the center. White headed grandfather and stalwart father bow before these curbs. His slipping is their law. A sign from him suffices. If he cries in the night he must be soothed; if he is ill the household must be roused. The newcomer is not long in discovering his omnipotence, and before he can walk he is drunken with it. As he grows older all this deepens and broadens. Parents, grandparents, servants, teachers—everybody is at his command. He accepts his honor, and even the insolence of his neighbor; he treats like a rebellious subject any one who does not step out of his path. There is only himself. He is the unique, the perfect, the infallible. Too late is it perceived that all this is not evolving a man, but a monster, a tyrant, a despot, a murderer, without respect, even pity. He no longer has any regard for those to whom he owes everything, and he goes through life without law or check.

This education, too, has its social counterpart. It flourishes wherever the living wage is low, where history is old, tradition, no discipline, no reverence;

where those who know the least make the most noise; where those who stand for public order are alarmed by every chance comes whose power lies in making a great outcry and respecting nothing. The result is a society without memory, passion, the triumph of the inferior will. I compare these two educations—one the exaltation of the environment, the other the tyranny of the new—and I find them equally baneful. But the most disastrous of all is the education of the two, which produces human beings who are half brutes, half despots, forever vacillating between the spirit of a sheep and the spirit of revolt or domination.

Children should be educated neither for themselves nor for their parents; for man is not more designed to be a parent than he is a specimen. They should be educated for the world. The task of their education is to lead them to become active members of humanity, brotherly forces, free servants of the whole of creation.

SOMETHING DOING IN THE COUNTRY.

What Missouri Gals Like

Joplin (Mo.) Girbe: A young man bearing the earmarks of an "agriculturist" walked into a Main street grocery last evening and called for a bottle of vanilla extract. Before opening the door to step back into the street he pulled from his pocket a few sprigs of the flavoring on his handkerchief, and as he placed the bottle in his vest pocket, remarked to the clerk: "If there is anything Missouri gals like better than cinchonine, it's perfume."

A Note of Warning.

Montgomery (Wis.) Times: This is to notify any and all persons whatever that I am through with my wife for good, and will put no bills at her name, and will never want her to darken my door again. Take notice, as she has left me, and also I wish to warn all men against her, because she would give any man a whole lot of trouble.

Olaf Crystal.

Revising the News.

Bianchard correspondent Forest (Ohio) Review: I wish to rectify the mistake that appeared in these items two weeks ago. The week meant was the week before. The two ladies spent a week with the parties mentioned, and Mr. Moore and Brown spent one evening and Miss Jessie Clement is a caller every day at their home to buy milk.

Sorry for Frank.

Friars Point (Miss.) Coachman: We did feel sorry for Frank Reid during this cold snap. He only had two undershirts, we are told; he had sold his overcoat; Jeff, the porter, was wearing one of his undershirts, and Jerry, the pointer dog, had on the other, and as both Jeff and Jerry were out, Frank had to stay in his room by the fire.

The Court Bowed Down.

Atchison Globe: Myra McHenry, the Wichita joint smasher, kissed the judge in court and then boasted of it. He would have killed a man in oil for the offense, but all he did to the woman was to mildly request her to show more respect. A real vicious woman has the world bluffed.

Birthday Party in Kansas.

Card in Atchison Globe: We wish to thank the friends who were so kind to us recently upon the birth of our baby. The doctor, particularly, was kind, and we feel under lasting obligations to the two neighbor women who stayed up with us all night. Lon Cosdell and wife.

A Brand From the Burning.

Friars Point (Miss.) Coneman: Early Wednesday morning a fire broke out on the east side at Coahoma and wiped out everything except the Chinaman, whom the insurance companies had refused.

Fell From the Wagon.

Dexter (Iowa) Sentinel: Harry Giles had a wagon to run over his leg a little over a week ago. It did not hurt him at first, but he took cold on the bruise, and has been laid up ever since.

BILIUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION CURED BY THEDFORD'S BLACK-draught

Because the liver is neglected people suffer from constipation, biliousness, headache, &c., &c. Cold attacks the lungs and constrictive diseases take hold of the system. It is safe to say that if the liver were always kept in proper working order, illness could almost entirely be avoided.

TheDFord's Black-Draught is so successful in curing such sickness because it is without a rival as a liver regulator. This great family medicine is not only a powerful diaphoretic drug, but a mild and healthful laxative that cures constipation and may be taken by a man child without possible harm.

The healthful action on the liver cures biliousness. It has an invigorating effect on the kidneys. But it is not a laxative, so it does not work regularly, the poisonous acids along with the waste from the bowels get back into the blood and virulent contagion is created.

Its treatment with TheDFord's Black-Draught removes the dangerous lurking in constipation, liver and kidney troubles, and will positively arrest the spread of bright diseases. When disease in advanced stages there is no cure. Ask your dealer for a 25c. package of TheDFord's Black-Draught.

A Hello Blunder.

Hancock (Md.) Star: A man telephoned to Spangler's on Thursday for some Burgundy, and they sent him a buggy.

RECOGNIZES BURGLAR.

Trotter, Ky., March 9.—E. C. Miles, who conducts a store two miles distant on the Hartford road, detected a burglar in the act of entering his place of business. For some time he had been visited by an unknown thief, who, in a weak attempt to cover his tracks, and will never want her to darken my door again. Take notice, as she has left me, and also I wish to warn all men against her, because she would give any man a whole lot of trouble.

Revising the News.

Bianchard correspondent Forest (Ohio) Review: I wish to rectify the mistake that appeared in these items two weeks ago. The week meant was the week before. The two ladies spent a week with the parties mentioned, and Mr. Moore and Brown spent one evening and Miss Jessie Clement is a caller every day at their home to buy milk.

Sorry for Frank.

Friars Point (Miss.) Coachman: We did feel sorry for Frank Reid during this cold snap. He only had two undershirts, we are told; he had sold his overcoat; Jeff, the porter, was wearing one of his undershirts, and Jerry, the pointer dog, had on the other, and as both Jeff and Jerry were out, Frank had to stay in his room by the fire.

The Court Bowed Down.

Atchison Globe: Myra McHenry, the Wichita joint smasher, kissed the judge in court and then boasted of it. He would have killed a man in oil for the offense, but all he did to the woman was to mildly request her to show more respect. A real vicious woman has the world bluffed.

Birthday Party in Kansas.

Card in Atchison Globe: We wish to thank the friends who were so kind to us recently upon the birth of our baby. The doctor, particularly, was kind, and we feel under lasting obligations to the two neighbor women who stayed up with us all night. Lon Cosdell and wife.

A Brand From the Burning.

Friars Point (Miss.) Coneman: Early Wednesday morning a fire broke out on the east side at Coahoma and wiped out everything except the Chinaman, whom the insurance companies had refused.

Fell From the Wagon.

Dexter (Iowa) Sentinel: Harry Giles had a wagon to run over his leg a little over a week ago. It did not hurt him at first, but he took cold on the bruise, and has been laid up ever since.

New Species of Gentleman.
Iowa City (Iowa) Daily News: Lost to the leather gentelman's pocket-book, containing sum of money, probably on Clinton street.

A Hello Blunder.

Hancock (Md.) Star: A man telephoned to Spangler's on Thursday for some Burgundy, and they sent him a buggy.

RECOGNIZES BURGLAR.

Trotter, Ky., March 9.—E. C. Miles, who conducts a store two miles distant on the Hartford road, detected a burglar in the act of entering his place of business. For some time he had been visited by an unknown thief, who, in a weak attempt to cover his tracks, and will never want her to darken my door again. Take notice, as she has left me, and also I wish to warn all men against her, because she would give any man a whole lot of trouble.

THOUGHTS.

I see in this world two heaps—one of human happiness and one of misery; now if I can take but the smallest bit from the second heap and add it to the first, I carry a point. If, as I go home, a child has dropped a half-penny, and by giving it another I can wipe away its tears, I feel that I have done something."—John Newton.

The ground hog will let up on the weather tomorrow.

Never give a hair pin to your wife that you picked up on the sidewalk.

There is sound hope for any man who earnestly works and works and keeps on working.

GEO. JOLLY is a great admirer of Roosevelt. He says he is the greatest man in America.

BROTHER NEWSOM has closed his meeting and gone from among us, but his words are still buzzing in the ears of many of us.

THERE is a very important meeting for the farmers called in this town for next Saturday. Every farmer who has a crop of tobacco should be present.

THEY have no use for Commissioner Garfield in Kansas since his report on the beef trust. People in Kentucky are not very well pleased with that report either.

THE more President Roosevelt demonstrates that he is a patriot before he is a partisan, the firmer becomes his hold on the hearts of his countrymen and the fainter becomes the lingering trace of sectionalism.—Atlanta Constitution.

SHERMAN BALL is developing into a great speaker. His speech before the body of farmers at Hardinsburg last Saturday came in the way of a surprise to many. It showed that he had given the cause of the farmer much thought and study. It was along right lines, good wholesome advice, and it is to be hoped the farmers will heed it.

OUR guessing contest closes next Wednesday, March 22. Only a little time left now in which to make your guess, so get in line. Send us your dollar and your guess. It will be your last chance. No more guessing contests, says the government. Just sit down and figure a little and think a little and there's no telling what you may strike. We would like to see that $10,000 come to some of the News' subscribers. It's there for them if they will only go after it. Act now; don't put it off.

THE accident to our young friend D. C. Herndon in Chicago the other day reminds us that it is never safe to step from a moving train. There is always danger in it. And where the danger comes in is in stepping and looking in the opposite direction from the way the train is moving. Never step face backward but face forward if you have to step. Our eyes were put in the front of our head to look forward. It is contrary to nature to look backward. There is safety and progress in facing forward and danger and death in facing backward. It is always safe to look before you leap.

MR. BRASHEAR, buyer for the American Tobacco Co., in this town, gave a farmer and a member of the A. S. of E. some good advice the other day. He said to the man that if he was a member of the organization and had pledged his crop that he ought to stand by his agreement. "We don't care," said Mr. Brashears, "to buy any man's tobacco who has pledged it to another. When we make a contract with a man for his crop and he signs our contract we expect him to stand by it and bring us his tobacco." Mr. Brashears is right. When a farmer or any other man makes a contract he ought to stand by it.

OUR old friend, Pete Lyons, is a candidate for jailer, subject to the action of the Democratic convention which convenes at Hardinsburg, Saturday, April 3. His announcement appears elsewhere. If loyalty to the Democratic party goes for anything, Pete ought to have the nomination. For twenty-five years no man in this county has been more faithful and loyal to his party than Pete Lyons. He has given up his time and his money to help the other fellow and his party. He has never held office and is entitled to some recognition at the hands of his party. He needs the office. He is not near as young as he once was, but his age is no drawback when it comes to taking care of the jail and its inmates. He will make a strong candidate before the people, having friends in both parties who will support him heartily. He deserves the nomination and ought to have it and we hope he will get it.

WE call attention to an article clipped from the Courier-Journal regarding the raising of tomatoes up around Jeffersonville, Ind. This clipping was sent us by Mr. L. J. Irwin, G. P. A., of the Henderson Route, who is always on the alert for something that will help the patrons of his road. He was largely instrumental in bringing the canning factory to this town and is still ready and willing to do all he can to stimulate our industries. What has been done up around Jeffersonville can be done here. There is room here for more factories, but the factories can't run without they get help from the farmers. Here's a chance for every farmer who lives in ten miles of this place to reduce his crop of tobacco and plant tomatoes. Tomatoes pay better than tobacco—so those who have raised them say. Then why fool with the tobacco trust? As President Wilson of the A. S. of E. says, get to raising something else besides tobacco and then you won't be dependent on the tobacco trust or any other trust. Trust something else besides tobacco. At will pay to do it. You don't have to raise tobacco in this country. Just quit raising it for a year and you'll have the Tobacco Trust in the biggest hole it was ever in. It will not only be willing to pay "three eights" but three tens or any old price to get tobacco.

HERE's a bit of advice to our Democratic friends. They can take it or reject it, just as they please. They are looking around for a good man to represent this county in the next legislature. If it's a good man they want, we suggest the name of W. H. Bowmer, of this town. He's known either personally or by reputation to every man in the county. He's a man among men and his presence in the legislature would be a credit to any party or any community. He's a self-made man. He came up from the farm. He has plowed and worn tow-linen breeches and brogan shoes and has carried many a turn of corn to the mill on horse-back just like other farm boys. He left the farm and "took up" a school and in this way earned his first dollar. After teaching school for a while he went to Fordsville and got his first experience in the dry goods business under old man Jack Haynes, away back in the fifties. Then he came to Cloverport and got a position with the old firm of Hambleton, Skillman & Co., and finally a partnership in the firm. When this firm dissolved he went in business for himself and everybody knows he made a success and made it honestly and by hard work, economy and close attention to business. He has been closely identified with the business of this town for forty-five years. He has done his part as much as any man in its upbuilding. He's retired now and has leisure. He has never sought public favor or distinction, and is not doing it now. Not a word from him has ever come to us that he desires the place or that he would accept it if nominated. We are inclined to believe, however, that if called by the people, his patriotism and love of country would not allow him to reject the honor. Now let the Democrats nominate him and then let the Republicans endorse him and the whole people elect him. Here's a chance for the leaders of both parties to do the square thing and the right thing. Will they do it?

The Everglades.

The climate of the Everglades of Florida is almost faultless. It is singularly equable, showing no extremes of heat and cold and is subject to few changes and a "heat wave" coming out of the region of snow and sun, is soon softened to milder temperature, and the heat of summer is made genial, though the mercury may be well up in the eighties by the ozonized air which is in the glades.

DEATH NEAR GARFIELD.

GARFIELD, Ky., March 18.—Special Agent George Smith died here March 7 and was buried at Freedon church March 9. She leaves a husband, son and daughter, and a large circle of relatives and friends. She was Miss Carolyn Coop before her marriage.

DEATH OF MRS. SULZER.

Mrs. Amelia Gest Sulzer, wife of Samuel L. Sulzer, who was formerly in business here and is an uncle of J. C. and E. F. Nolt, died Friday night at her home in Cannetton of heart failure. The funeral was at Cannetton Monday.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. H. C. Carey and daughter wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to the neighbors and friends for their kindness and assistance in their late bereavement.

Mrs. H. C. Carey,
Mrs. M. Harden.

The Lower Animals.

Animals have kept me in perplexion—in many respects more than one ever—but that form no conceptions, have no powers of comparing one thing with another. They live entirely in and through their senses. To all that inner world of reflection, imagination, comparison, reason, they are strangers. They know not what is right or wrong. They have sense memory, sense intelligence, and they profit in many ways by experience, but they have not soul memory or rational intelligence. All the fundamental emotions and appetites meet, and the lower animals share in common such as fear, anger, desire, jealousy, pride, curiosity, play, but the world of thought and thought experience and the emotions that go with it belong to man alone. It is as if the psychic world were divided into two planes—the above mentioned plane of sense and plane of spirit. In the plane of sense live the lower animals, only now and then just breaking for a moment into the higher plane. In the world of sense man is immersed also. This is his start and foundation, but he rises into the plane of spirit, and here lives his proper life. He is emancipated from sense in a way that beasts are not.

But if you dislike the work turn to anything else but teaching. We cannot succeed even in what we teach. Bad teachers, who do not like their work. They are like the young girl in the country town who said to one of her friends: "Yes, I am going to take up teaching."

"The friend looked amazed. 'You?' she exclaimed. 'You a schoolteacher! Why, I'd rather marry a widower with nine children!'

"So would I!" said the other. 'But where is the widow?'—New York Tribune.

Origin of the Banjo.

In the early part of the nineteenth century in the town of Baanjoemas, on the island of Java, a negro native designed to construct a musical instrument from a dried gourd. Taking cheese and bread and holding it with a gourdin, he ran a handle through it and, adapting violin strings tuned to the first, third, fifth and eighth notes of an octave, he christened it a banjo, from the first two syllables of his name. From the seed instrument were made, and about the middle of the century it crossed the Atlantic and, though unpopular in London at first, soon became well liked.—London Chronicle.

"Lucky White You Can."

HENRY ELIAS, 1888, about which time he met Ruskin for a memorable moment. He had run into a room where his sister was painting under Ruskin's eye. He did not notice Ruskin, but went to his sister and said something to her. "You are a good boy, but better much while you can," said Ruskin, "for every year you live you will become more and more miserable."

—From "Life of Quintin Hogg."

Intemperate Tea Drinking.

IN THIS case, tea tension, high pressure and overstrain tea is felt to be doing much to overstock our lunatic asylums. There can be little doubt that tea drinking is a form of intemperance in these days, a national and female intoxication second only to that of strong drink, and in some respects perhaps even more injurious.—Family Doctor.

Connected.

LIES—Did you ever come across a more connected fellow than Bulwer? They say he is an atheist, and I believe he is. Bonner—I wouldn't like to go so far as that, but I know that he doesn't recognize the existence of a superior being.—Town.

A Mean Suggestion.

"You know," said Miss Kresser after her solo, "I intend to go abroad to finish my musical education."

"Why not fit it right now?" suggested Miss Cadley. "Save the expense?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

For instance.

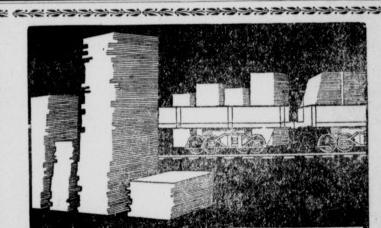

"Lucy," asked the teacher, "what is the meaning of 'sneecy'?"

"It means short, ma'am."

"A rabbit has a sneect tail!"—Chicago Tribune.

BIG TOMATO DISTRICT.

ONE of the most promising industries in Southern Indiana is that of tomato raising, and hundreds of acres of land are devoted to the culture of the crop annually. Within thirty miles of Jeffersonville there are thirteen canning factories, all of which have enough to pay her.

RUTS

The walking sick, what a crowd of them there are! Persons who are thin and weak but not sick enough to go to bed.

"Chronic cases" that's what the doctors call them, which in common English means—long sickness.

To stop the continued loss of flesh they need Scott's Emulsion. For the feeling of weakness they need Scott's Emulsion.

It makes new flesh and gives new life to the weak system.

Scott's Emulsion gets thin and weak persons out of the rut. It makes new, rich blood, strengthens the nerves and gives appetite for ordinary food.

Scott's Emulsion can be taken as long as sickness lasts and do good all the time.

There's new strength and flesh in every dose.

We will be glad to send you a few doses free.

Be sure that a picture in the form of a label is on every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

How to Get Rich.

The sensation created by James Vick's remarkable book, "My Reasons," led a representative of the National Bank to interview the famous Rochester seedsman at his Philadelphia office.

"The average man," he said, "rarely obtains more than a bare living in return for his life-long grinding toil. This book contains information which may bring him independence."

"Yes, it's true. I will give you the book for free. It will especially interest those who have saved a little money, telling how they may become wealthy. I have only a limited number of books, but I will gladly send a copy to your friends without charge. My object in publishing the book was not to make a profit but to help others."

SON IS SEARCHING FOR AGED FATHER.

Frederick Gross, of Hardsburg,
After Being Nineteen Years
Separated, Seeks His Parent.

A recent issue of the Louisville Herald contained the following:

"Filial attachment, undiminished by nineteen years' separation, brought Frederick Gross, twenty-four years old, from Hardsburg, Ky., to Louisville yesterday in search of his aged father, for whom he desires to provide the comforts of a home in his declining years."

"Gross' mother died when he was a babe, and his father, poor and hampered by his lack of knowledge of the English language, could not provide for the child. He placed Frederick, his namesake, in the German Baptist Orphans' Asylum, from which ten years later he was taken by Thomas Miller, who raised him as his own son. Frederick Gross is now engaged in business with his foster parent."

"From the time he placed Frederick in the orphanage the elder Gross drifted out of the life of his son and became so much of a burden that his boy grew to resent him. The latter knows little of his father, but now that he is in comfortable circumstances he has a longing to see his father again and know that in his old age he was fond of nothing."

Mr. Gross was at Mattingly last week in search of his father but had no success. While at Mattingly he telephoned here and asked if his father was here, stating that he had heard that he had been the week before. His father's name is Frederick Gross, Sr.

Frederick Gross, Jr., was at Hardsburg several weeks ago and it was understood at the time that he expected to enlist in the regular army. He has worked for Thos. Miller at his farm about four miles from Hardsburg.

W. H. SARGENT DEAD.

Fordsville, Ky., March 20.—William H. Sargent, sixty-one years of age, died at his home here at 5 o'clock this morning. He had been a railway postal clerk for seventeen years and served the union army during the war between the states. He is survived by his widow and two sons.

The remains will be taken today to Rockport, Ind., his old home, where the funeral will be conducted by the Odd Fellows Saturday.

ALL SICK WOMEN SHOULD READ MRS. FOX'S LETTER

In All Parts of the United States Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Effectual Similar Cures.

Many wonderful cures of female ills are continually coming to light which have been brought about by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and through the advice of Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., which is given to sick women free of charge.

Mrs. Pinkham has for many years made a study of the ills of her sex; she has consulted with and advised thousands of suffering women, who told her their trouble, and death but ven life to her helpful advice.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox, of 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa., writes:

I suffered for a long time with womb trouble, and finally was told by my physician that I had a tumor on the womb. I did not want to submit to an operation, so I wrote for advice. I received your letter and did as you told me, and to-day I am completely recovered. My doctor says I am in better health than ever. My wife is one more a well woman. I believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world for women.

The testimonials which are constantly published in great medical journals are prompt acknowledgment of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness, are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She asks nothing in return for her advice. It is absolutely free, and to thousands of women has proved to be more precious than gold.

NEWS OF ALL SORTS.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS

At a regular meeting of the Hawenville local union No. 1 of the American Society of Equity, which met Friday night, March 11, 1905, with a full attendance, resolutions were adopted condemning the acts of John Parker, a member of above union, for having wilfully and knowingly, without the consent of the union, sold his tobacco to less than the price set by the society after said union had offered to assist him in many ways and his agreeing to and pledging his tobacco to the union to be sold with same by the committee appointed by the union to dispose of as they saw proper. Now, therefore, we the undersigned committee appointed by the above union, adopt the following resolutions:

We deem said John Parker no longer worthy of being a member of this society and recommend that he be expelled from this union and thereby bar him from ever becoming a member of any local union of the American Society of Equity.

We therefore call on all liberty-loving men, who believe in equal rights to all and special privileges to none, to stand by us and help fight for the cause that is justly ours—one that is not denied any other class—and that is to be allowed to set prior on the sweat of his brow.

We therefore caution all farmers and tillers of the soil to be on the alert; keep your eyes open; do business strictly with those who favor our cause. The man who works against the interest of the farmer is his enemy. Treat him as such.

A note of warning is hereby given to all persons directly or indirectly connected with the union, or outsiders known as "scabs" who interfere with the workings of the union to its detriment, that all such persons should be considered as enemies to the cause and should be treated as such by members of the A. S. E.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Up-to-Date Farming, Hancock Clarion and Hawenville Plaindealer for publication.

LETTER TO FARMERS.

Much tobacco is being received at the Equity warehouse at Owenton and farmers are very much interested in this method to secure better prices for their crops. The following open and timely letter will be of interest to the tobacco growers of this and surrounding counties:

To the Farmers of Daviess and Adjoining Counties:

Representing our committee appointed to have your tobacco handled to the best advantage, request your attention to the following synopsis of the contract made with Turner & Wood and G. N. Thompson. They propose to agree to settle and pay, furnish all labor and material and in the manipulation of your tobacco to give in and compare, insure till ready for delivery all tobacco delivered to them and received by you from this season, furnish all money necessary to reimburse your tobacco as above tree of interest and give free storage to November 1, 1905, to the limit of their capacity. For this they charge $1.25 per hundred dry weight. In my opinion the value of the tobacco is expired portion of the current fiscal year with those for the same period in 1905-1904 shows a good increase in exports of domestic leaf, ping tobacco and cigarettes, and a large decrease in stems and trimmings and a moderate decrease in domestic cigars.

FARMERS PLEASED.

A dispatch from Nashville to a Louisville paper says: "Reports from the dark tobacco district of Kentucky and Tennessee show that the business affairs of the Farmers' Protective Association, which was formed for the purpose of inaugurating a fight for higher prices and against the tobacco trust, are well in hand. The prizing houses are filling up with rapidity and the farmers are reported to be well pleased with the system adopted. Now that the season has fairly opened the tobacco is rising into the various prizing houses, and those farmers who are in need of money immediately are being furnished with an advance of $4 per hundred on good tobacco, which in itself is about equal to the full price they received for their crop last season under the operations of the trust."

DEFENDS ITSELF.

In defense of itself when charged that it is a tobacco trust paper, the Western Tobacco Journal says: "The Western Tobacco Journal is no friend of trusts of any description, and no one can quote a line from its pages to the effect that it is different. It is just independent enough to call attention to one side of the question as the other. It endeavors to show wherein the farmers are making a mistake in pricing their tobacco, to be held for better prices later on, and its only suggestion which time alone will solve whether farmers had not better accept present prices as a certainty than prize and hold it for an uncertainty. This is the whole thing in a nutshell, and we take it for granted that the buyers of tobacco are as anxious to wait the issue when the time comes as to who turned out to be right in the matter."

HAVE GREAT SURPLUS.

New York, March 15.—The total earnings of the companies which were merged into the American Tobacco Company for 1904 we report at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the concern in Jersey City to-day to be $22,394,646.

The surplus for the year, after paying men, dividends and interest, was $12,255,131.
